15th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Mark 6:7-13

This week's Gospel and the one for next week describe how Jesus sent the disciples to minister in his name and the disciples' return to Jesus afterward. These two passages, however, are not presented together in Mark's Gospel. Inserted between the two is the report of Herod's fears that Jesus is John the Baptist back from the dead. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is presented in connection with the teaching of John the Baptist. Jesus' public ministry begins after John is arrested. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus, who preached the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God.

While we do not read these details about John the Baptist in our Gospel this week or next week, our Lectionary sequence stays consistent with Mark's theme. Recall that last week we heard how Jesus was rejected in his hometown of Nazareth. The insertion of the reminder about John the Baptist's ministry and his death at the hands of Herod in Mark's Gospel makes a similar point. Mark reminds his readers about this dangerous context for Jesus' ministry and that of his disciples. Preaching repentance and the Kingdom of God is dangerous business for Jesus and for his disciples. Mark wants his readers to remember that we, too, may find resistance as we choose to be disciples of Jesus.

Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus sent out the Twelve. These twelve were selected from among Jesus' disciples and named by Mark in chapter 3. Mark notes that these twelve are also called "apostles." The word apostle means "one who is sent." The number twelve is also a symbolic number, representing the twelve tribes of Israel. By naming twelve apostles, Jesus shows his mission to be in continuity with the mission of God's people, Israel.

Jesus' instructions to the apostles are very specific. He repeats the mission that they are sent to preach and to share his authority to heal and to drive out demons. Jesus sends them in pairs, establishing his mission as a communal endeavor. Jesus also instructs them to travel lightly, without the customary food, money, and extra set of clothes. These instructions mean that the Twelve will be dependent on the hospitality of others, just as Jesus depended on others to provide for his needs.

Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples. But like the first disciples, we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship. The Christian message can only authentically be proclaimed in and through the community of faith that is the Church. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it.

NEXT SUNDAY'S 2nd COLLECTION

Next weekend, July 20 & 21, the second collection will be for Retired Priests of the Archdiocese. Your generosity will surely support our retired clergy, especially those who served our parish. Thank you and may the Lord bless you in every way!

DO YOU HAVE ONE OR TWO HOURS TO HELP OUT? BINGO PLAYS A BIG ROLE IN OUR PARISH. IT HELPS PAY OUR BILLS. DURING THE SUMMER ESPECIALLY WE ARE SHORTHANDED FOR VOLUNTEERS. IF YOU CAN SPARE A COUPLE OF HOURS ON A WEDNESDAY OR FRIDAY NIGHT OR EVEN A SATURDAY AFTERNOON TO HELP OUT IT WILL MAKE A BIG DIFFERENCE. BEING A PARISHIONER IS MORE THAN COMING TO CHURCH ON SUNDAY—IT IS BEING A PART OF YOUR PARISH FAMILY. PLEASE CONSIDER VOLUNTEERING THIS SUMMER.

ATTENTION ALL VOLUNTEERS!

Our Parish will host a Protecting God's Children seminar on September 5, 2024. If you are required to attend according to the Archdiocese you will need to register online at virtus.org. This is very urgent because the seating is limited to only 25 attendees. The seminar will go live on virtus.org on July 19. Please be sure to register since it will be made public. If you have past your expiration date you may not be able to volunteer until you are updated. Also, if your certificate is about to expire this coming year you may attend the seminar now to avoid the rush later. If you have any questions, please call the parish office.

We continue the research of our beautiful stained glass windows. In all there are 16 windows. Five on each side of the nave, 2 above the confessional, 2 above the gallery of saints, 1 in the vestibule and 1 leading to the choir loft. The names of donors are memorialized in the windows.

This week we are hoping to hear from a family member of Leopold Auriemma or Michael and Modesta Capozzi. If you have any information about any of these please contact the Parish Office. The HISTORICAL MINISTRY is planning to commemorate these families in our new version of the History of our Church. Thank you for any information you have to offer.

Have you thought about getting more involved in Parish Life? Do you ever wonder about how our Parish is able to have so many events and different activities to offer? These events and activities do not operate by themselves—they operate because Parishioners like yourself volunteer their precious time to help make our Parish better. We are all called to be a part of the Body of Christ and work in some way to benefit our brothers and sisters in Christ. Consider what you can contribute to the Body and call the Parish Office to find out how you can fit in. Your help is sorely needed. We are all members of the Body of Christ—each member has its particular contribution to make to the Body. Every member is important. This means YOU! Call the Parish Office to sign up.
