USCCB PRESIDENT STATEMENT ON 20 YEARS SINCE PASSAGE OF CHARTER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

June 9, 2022

This June marks twenty years since the Catholic bishops of the United States gathered in Dallas, Texas to draft and pass the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in their commitment to address the issue of clergy sexual abuse. Marking this moment, Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) issued the following statement:

"This month marks the twentieth anniversary of the passage of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. This is not a time of celebration, but a time of continued vigilance and determination.

"In these twenty years, we have greatly benefited from listening to and working with survivors of abuse. We are grateful for their courage in sharing their stories and for helping the Church strive to create a culture of protection and healing. Their witness has led directly to meaningful reform in the Church and to a greater awareness of sexual abuse in the wider world. For past survivors and future children, it is imperative that we remain vigilant.

"Since the passage of the Charter, the Catholic Church in the United States has worked hard to fulfill our pledge to support the healing of those hurt by sexual abuse, along with their families. We have also strived to be faithful to our promise to protect children and young people. Today, millions of children and adults have been trained to spot the signs of abusive behavior, allegations of sexual abuse are reported to local law enforcement, background checks are the norm, review boards comprised of lay experts meet to assess allegations, and victim assistance coordinators are in place to assist survivors in finding help.

"At this two-decade mark, we remain firm with Pope Francis' commitment, 'that everything possible must be done to rid the Church of the scourge of the sexual abuse of minors and to open pathways of reconciliation and healing for those who were abused.'

"We entrust our prayers for survivors of abuse, their families, and for those who minister in the Church to our Blessed Mother, who offers her loving protection to all her children. We ask for her intercession as we continue in our work of protecting those close to the heart of her Son, Jesus."

A Kernel of History

(Part 35)

Time moves on and many changes of leadership took place in the Archdiocese and in our church. Fr. Fuino and Fr. Mathew were no longer at our Parish. Deacon Lou Acocello transferred to St. Francis Parish and Fr. Cestaro celebrated his 40th Anniversary in 1986 with Mass at 5:30 PM and a reception to follow in the school cafeteria. Fr. Gillick, former beloved Vicar, celebrated his 50th Anniversary and all parishioners were invited to St. John's in Orange to celebrate. In 1987, Jim Risoli, who was active with the ushers and the Shrine Committee, died in December. Then, on October 1 of 1988, Thomas W. Sibilis passed away. A lifelong parishioner of St. Anthony's and active in the Boy Scouts for 50 years—40 of those years as Scoutmaster of St. Anthony's Troop 387, he was also a member of the choir and originally sang in the choir at Sacred Heart Cathedral for 15 years. A new Era was about to begin.

More to come in future bulletins.

The Traveling Chalice

Today, June 26, the Policarpio Family will pass it on to the Sanabria Family at the 10:30am Mass.

On July 2, the Sanabria Family will return the Chalice and it will remain at the altar for the summer. All are invited to spend some time praying for vocations while you visit the church until it begins traveling again in September.

We ask the Lord to hear our prayers for vocations as we continue with the Traveling Chalice Program. And, as a Parish Family, we all pray for those seeking the Lord for guidance in their vocation.

Word Circle Bible Sharing

Are You a Registered Parishioner?

You may think you are registered—but if you are not receiving envelopes for your weekly donations there is a big chance you are not registered. It is very important that you register at the Parish Office and use your weekly envelopes for giving. The reason for this is because all parishes report the number of parishioners in their Parish yearly and also when a parishioner needs proof that he or she is a Catholic in good-standing it makes the process very simple. You may need this proof if you are asked to be a sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation or when preparing for Marriage. You are encouraged to confirm your registration with our Parish Office by calling Leonora at 973.481.1991 during our office hours 10-4 Monday through Friday.
