19th Sunday In Ordinary Time

John 6:41:51

On this Sunday, we continue to read from the "Bread of Life discourse" found in the sixth chapter of John's Gospel. Recall that we have been reading from this chapter for the past two weeks and will continue to read from it for another two. Last week, the crowd asked for a sign that would show that Jesus came from God. Jesus replied by saying that he is the sign and the bread of life sent by God. At this point, our Lectionary omits six verses in which Jesus predicts the unbelief of the crowd and further develops his connection with God the Father. In these verses, Jesus says that he was sent by God to do the Father's will. Jesus promises that those who look upon the Son with faith will find eternal life. Some of these themes are repeated in today's Gospel reading.

Today's Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus' claims regarding his identity. They knew his family, and they knew he was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus meant when he said that he came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize him as the one that God sent. This is a recurring theme in John's Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus.

In the verses that follow, Jesus talks more about his unity with the Father. He is the one who has seen the Father and, therefore, knows the Father. Those who listen to God will recognize that Jesus is the one sent from God. Those who believe will have eternal life. Jesus concludes with the central element of our eucharistic theology. He promises that the bread of life will bring eternal life to those who partake of it, and he tells us that the bread of life will be his own flesh, given for the life of the world.

In today's reading, we hear Jesus say again, as he did in last week's Gospel, that he is the bread of life. We also hear Jesus add that he is the living bread. Both of these statements help us understand better the gift that Jesus gives us in the Eucharist. We celebrate this gift of Jesus each time we gather for Mass. We believe that receiving Jesus in the Eucharist will lead us to eternal life.

ATTENTION ALL VOLUNTEERS! PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN SEMINAR IS MANDATORY!

Our Parish will host a Protecting God's Children seminar on September 5, 2024. If you are required to attend according to the Archdiocese you will need to register online at virtus.org. This is very urgent because the seating is limited to only 25 attendees. Please be sure to register since this seminar will be open to the public. If you have past your expiration date you may not be able to volunteer until you are updated. Also, if your certificate is about to expire this coming year you may attend the seminar now to avoid the rush later. If you have any questions, please call the parish office.

NO EXCUSES

So, its summertime and you are going away on vacation. No worries about missing Mass – just enter the zip code and find a Mass anywhere at masstimes.org.

THANK YOU!!

A very special thank you to Julie Palma, once again, for having the surrounding areas of the Rectory & Parish Office cleaned. Also, for Eugene Romano and his helpers, Frank Choloski, Nicky Inaugurato & Jojo Alvarez, keeping our lawns trimmed and healthy. Their dedication and sacrifice is priceless. We pray the Lord bless them and always keep them in His loving care.

Have you thought about getting more involved in Parish Life? Do you ever wonder about how our Parish is able to have so many events and different activities to offer? These events and activities do not operate by themselves—they operate because Parishioners like yourself volunteer their precious time to help make our Parish better. We are all called to be a part of the Body of Christ and work in some way to benefit our brothers and sisters in Christ. Consider what you can contribute to the Body and call the Parish Office to find out how you can fit in. Your help is sorely needed. We are all members of the Body of Christ—each member has its particular contribution to make to the Body. Every member is important. This means YOU! Call the Parish Office to sign up.

Catholic Teaching and the Sense of the Faithful On the Assumption of Mary

The Catholic Church teaches as dogma that the Virgin Mary “having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory.” This doctrine was dogmatically defined by Pope Pius XII on November 1, 1950, in the Apostolic Constitution Munificentissimus Deus, while exercising papal infallibility. But Pope Pius was not declaring the belief in the Assumption as something new or novel. There is written evidence of the belief as early as the 4th century in text that covers several different languages and a fairly wide geographical dispersion. Teaching of the Assumption of Mary became widespread across the Christian world, having been celebrated liturgically as early as the 5th century in the East. It was celebrated in the West under Pope Sergius I in the 8th century and Pope Leo IV then confirmed the feast as official. Theological debate about the Assumption continued, following the Reformation, climaxing in 1950 when Pope Pius XII defined it as dogma for the Catholic Church.

Pope Pius took advantage of modern communications available in his time. He asked bishops worldwide to tell him what the people believed and practiced – the sensus fideum – the sense of the faithful. The dogmatic declaration that the Assumption was part of the “deposit of faith” for all Catholics was just the formal declaration of what the faithful already believed and practiced.
