32nd Sunday In Ordinary Time

Mark 12:38-44

The context for today's Gospel continues to be mounting tension between Jesus and the Jewish authorities. Mark reports some of Jesus' teaching in the Temple area in today's reading and in the preceding verses not included in our Lectionary sequence. In the first part of today's Gospel, we hear Jesus warn the crowds not to follow the example of the scribes in seeking honor and attention from others. It is important to recall that Mark indicates that Jesus taught these things while in the vicinity of the Temple in Jerusalem. Mark is setting the stage for Jesus' passion.

Jesus then observes how Jewish pilgrims are making their contributions to the temple treasury. The Temple in Jerusalem was the center of Jewish worship in the time of Jesus. It was expected that observant Jews would make pilgrimages to the Temple to offer prayer and sacrifices. Pilgrims were also expected to make a financial contribution to the temple treasury.

As we would expect to be the case, Jesus observes that those who were rich contributed large sums to the treasury. Those with less means made smaller contributions. A similar situation exists in most of our parishes as well. Jesus calls attention, however, to a poor widow who makes the smallest of contributions—two coins of little value. Jesus upholds the poor widow's offering for his disciples' consideration, commending her because her small offering was an act of profound generosity, giving from her livelihood rather than her surplus.

To give from our livelihood is not only an act of generosity, it is also an act of trust in God. We can only give from our need if we trust that God will provide for us. Jesus himself demonstrates the ultimate act of generosity and trust in God as he gives his life for us on the cross.

New Liturgical Year & Advent Season Begins

November 24 is the Solemnity of Christ the King, marking the last Sunday in our current liturgical year. Then, on December 1, we will begin the season of Advent as we prepare our hearts for the celebration of the birth of our Savior. Once again, let us make a special effort this year to grow closer to the Lord by attending Mass faithfully and diligently seeking Him every day in the Eucharist and by praying for a renewal within ourselves as well as our family parish.

In 2026 St. Anthony of Padua Parish will celebrate our 125th Anniversary. In planning for this special event we are inviting everyone to help make it a huge success. Beginning this year, we will be searching for past parishioners of St. Anthony's who have moved away and now attend other parishes. If you know anyone who is a past parishioner that has moved away, please call the parish office with any information you may have. This can be a great undertaking, so if you would like to volunteer your time and knowledge please call the Parish Office as soon as possible.
