25th Sunday
In Ordinary Time
Mark 9:30-37

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus again predict his passion, death, and Resurrection to his disciples. The setting here is important. Jesus and his disciples are preparing to journey through Galilee, a Jewish territory in which Jesus has already encountered problems with the Pharisees. Perhaps this is why Mark indicates that Jesus was trying to journey in secret. In predicting his passion, Jesus is acknowledging the danger they will face and is trying to preparing his disciples for it. Yet Mark tells us that the disciples did not understand what Jesus was saying and were afraid to ask what he meant. Such hesitation on the part of the disciples is not characteristic behavior. Peter had no fear about rebuking Jesus in last week's Gospel. Perhaps this is an indication that the disciples were aware that a new situation was emerging.

Mark paints a vivid picture in today's Gospel. Having arrived at Capernaum, Jesus and his disciples enter a house. In this private place, Jesus asks his disciples about the argument they had while they were journeying. Again, the disciples are uncharacteristically silent and afraid to answer. They have been found out. Jesus then summons the Twelve, whom Mark identified earlier in his Gospel as those chosen by Jesus to preach and to drive out demons. To this select group of disciples, Jesus teaches that those who would be first in God's kingdom must be servants of all.

Jesus then calls forward a child and teaches the Twelve that to receive a child in Jesus' name is to receive both Jesus and the One who sent him. We might easily fail to understand the significance of this action. In first-century Palestine, children were without status or power, possessing no legal rights. In this action, Jesus is teaching his disciples and us that when we serve the least ones among us, we serve Jesus himself. Who are the people without power or status in our society that Jesus is calling us to serve? Do we do so willingly? Jesus teaches that God's judgment of us will be based on this criterion alone.

TRAVELING CHALICE

Today, September 22, The Traveling Chalice will be received by the SERRANO FAMILY at the 8:00am Mass on Sunday. They will be praying for vocations this week and present to the HENSON FAMILY next Sunday at the 8:00 am Mass. With these families, let us continue to pray for priestly & religious vocations in our parish!

CCD TRICKY TRAY

This year the CCD will hold it's major fundraising event, Tricky Tray, on October 20. They can surely use your help by giving a donation of a Tricky Tray Basket for raffle. You can contact the Parish Office to drop off your donation. Thank you for all your help in making this fundraiser a huge success again this year for the CCD. Last year the CCD children were able to see the Sight & Sound show in Lancaster with funds raised. What a special treat if they can do it again this year. Let's help make it happen.

URGENT!!!

VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED

The Bible tells us Jesus said "Give and it shall be given unto you..." Sometimes we may feel we haven't enough money for the necessary things — how can we give? One way may be to give of your time. Consider volunteering at Bingo on Saturdays — Bingo is a big help to our operating expenses and in these hard times even more so.

Call the Parish Office to sign up or talk to a Bingo volunteer.

COMING IN OCTOBER

Saturday, October 12, we will celebrate America Needs Fatima once again. This year, more than ever before since 1917, we need Our Lady of Fatima's intercession for our country and for the world. Plan to attend this major event and be on time for the 12 Noon Rosary Hour in which we will join thousands around the world praying together as one. May God Almighty heed our prayer for our nation and for the world. Let there be Peace on Earth.
