

ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA CHURCH

63 Franklin Street (Silver Lake) Belleville, NJ 07109

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

16th Sunday
In Ordinary Time
Mark 6:30-34

In this today's Gospel, we read the report of the return of the Twelve, who were sent by Jesus to preach repentance, heal the sick, and drive out demons. When the Twelve return to Jesus, he invites them to come away from the crowds and rest. But the crowds will not give them peace. As the Twelve have shared in Jesus' ministry, they now appear to share in his popularity. The crowds continue to approach them, and Mark reports that the disciples don't even have time to eat. In an effort to get away, Jesus and his disciples board a boat in hopes of finding a deserted place. But the crowds notice this and arrive ahead of them. The crowds are so persistent that Jesus and his disciples cannot find a place to be alone. Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus is moved with pity and begins to teach the crowds.

Our Gospel for today stops here, but Mark's report of the unyielding demands of the crowd continues in the verses that follow. If we were to continue reading from Mark's Gospel, we would hear Jesus instruct his disciples to feed the crowd in the familiar miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. The work of Jesus and his disciples appears to be a round-the-clock job. In the next few weeks, we will hear the story of Jesus' feeding of the multitude, but our Lectionary will turn to the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John to report and reflect on this story.

In today's Gospel, we hear the Twelve referred to as "apostles." The word apostle is a Greek word meaning "one who is sent." Jesus chose twelve men from among his disciples whom he sent to share in his ministry of preaching and healing. The first report of this is found in the third chapter of Mark's Gospel, where the Twelve are also called apostles and the names of this select group are listed.

We who are Jesus' disciples today have also been sent to share the Gospel with others. Perhaps our commitment to following Jesus as his disciple leaves us feeling tired and overwhelmed. In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm the importance of times of rest and renewal. Jesus wanted his disciples to come away and spend time alone with him. This is what we seek and find in our life of prayer and in our celebration of the Eucharist.

Have You Heard of Saint Charbel? Feast Day—July 24

Saint Charbel was born Yousef Antoun Makhoul in 1828 in the mountains of Northern Lebanon. He was raised in a devout Christian family and was one of five children. He wanted to become a monk from a very young age. As he tended to the small family flock, he often took the flock to a grotto to pray before the Blessed Virgin Mary. When he became a monk of the Lebanese Maronite Order at the age of 23, he took the name "Charbel". He completely devoted his life to Christ "with an undivided heart." He was especially devoted to the Eucharist and while in church he would face the altar with his eyes fixed on the tabernacle. He was ordained a priest at the age of 31 and later on became a hermit at 46. Saint Charbel died on Christmas Eve in 1898 before the presence of the Eucharist. When one of the monks went to the chapel at the tabernacle where Saint Charbel's body was lying in state awaiting burial, he saw a light bursting from the door of the tabernacle circling the body of Father Charbel, easing up to the chandelier above the coffin and back to the tabernacle. Also reported was light illuminating from his tomb. His body was exhumed multiple times and Church authorities found him completely incorrupt. More than 33,000 miracles have been recorded in the records of the Monastery of Saint Maron-Annaya which are attributed to his intercession until now. Pope St. Paul VI canonized this Maronite saint on October 9, 1977. His feast day is July 24. Read more at charbel.org. * Taken from various online sources

We continue the research of our beautiful stained glass windows. In all there are 16 windows. Five on each side of the nave, 2 above the confessional, 2 above the gallery of saints, 1 in the vestibule and 1 leading to the choir loft. The names of donors are memorialized in the windows.

This week we continue to seek the families of Leopold Auriemma or Michael and Modesta Capozzi. If you have any information about any of these please contact the Parish Office. The HISTORICAL MINISTRY is planning to commemorate these families in our new version of the History of our Church. Thank you for any information you have to offer.
