17th Sunday In Ordinary Time

John 6:1:15

Through most of Lectionary Cycle B, our Sunday Gospel readings are taken from the Gospel of Mark. Over the past two Sundays, we heard how Jesus sent his disciples to share in his mission. If we were to continue reading Mark's Gospel, we would next hear his report of how Jesus feeds the crowds in the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. Our Lectionary, however, leaves Mark's Gospel for the next several weeks and instead presents this event from the Gospel of John. In John's Gospel, Jesus' multiplication of the loaves and the fishes is presented as a sign of his authority and divinity. Jesus interprets the meaning and significance of this miracle as a sharing of his Body and Blood. This chapter is sometimes called the "Bread of Life Discourse."

In many important ways, John's Gospel uses the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes to teach about the Eucharist. Like the Last Supper, this miracle is said to have occurred near the time of the Jewish feast of Passover. (In John's Gospel three Passovers are identified.) Jesus' language is similar to the language he used at the Last Supper as reported in the Synoptic Gospels. John's description of this event also anticipates the Messianic banquet of heaven, as the crowd reclines and all hungers are satisfied with abundance. This connection is further amplified by the response of the crowd, who wants to make Jesus a king. John is teaching us that each time we celebrate the Eucharist, we are anticipating the eternal banquet of heaven.

Recall that John's Gospel tells the story of the Last Supper differently than the Synoptic Gospels. Instead of describing the meal and Jesus' actions with the bread and cup, John describes how Jesus washed his disciples' feet. We hear this Gospel when we remember the Last Supper on Holy Thursday. This recollection of Jesus' action at the Last Supper complements the institution narrative of the Synoptic Gospels and Paul's Letters that we hear repeated at each Mass.

In both stories about the Eucharist—the washing of the disciples' feet and the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes—the Gospel of John teaches us that the Eucharist is an action. Our word Eucharist is taken from the Greek language and describes an action: "to give thanks." In the Eucharist we are fed by Jesus himself, and we are sent to serve others.

John's Gospel notes the detail that the bread blessed and shared with the crowd are barley loaves. This is the food of the poor. It reminds us that God feeds and nourishes us, fulfilling our physical needs as well as our spiritual ones. In the Eucharist, we are sent to serve the poorest among us.

The story of the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes recalls a particular aspect of the Mass. In this miracle, Jesus transforms a young boy's offering of five barley loaves and two fish. In the offertory at Mass, we present the fruits of our labors, represented by bread and wine. These gifts, given to us first by God as grain and fruit, are returned to God in our offering of thanksgiving. God in turn transforms our gifts, making this bread and wine the very Body and Blood of Jesus. We also offer ourselves in this exchange, and we, too, are transformed by the Eucharist.

NEXT SUNDAY'S 2nd COLLECTION

Next weekend, August 3 & 4, the second collection will be for the Monthly Assessment. Your generosity is always appreciated and will be a big help to our parish. Thank you and may God bless you abundantly!

ATTENTION ALL VOLUNTEERS! PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN SEMINAR IS MANDATORY!

Our Parish will host a Protecting God's Children seminar on September 5, 2024. If you are required to attend according to the Archdiocese you will need to register online at virtus.org. This is very urgent because the seating is limited to only 25 attendees. The seminar will go live on virtus.org on July 19. Please be sure to register since it will be made public. If you have past your expiration date you may not be able to volunteer until you are updated. Also, if your certificate is about to expire this coming year you may attend the seminar now to avoid the rush later. If you have any questions, please call the parish office.

We continue the research of our beautiful stained glass windows. In all there are 16 windows. Five on each side of the nave, 2 above the confessional, 2 above the gallery of saints, 1 in the vestibule and 1 leading to the choir loft. The names of donors are memorialized in the windows.

This week we are seeking the families of Frank Bologna or Antonia Uzzi. If you have any information about any of these please contact the Parish Office. The HISTORICAL MINISTRY is planning to commemorate these families in our new version of the History of our Church. Thank you for any information you have to offer.

CCD TRICKY TRAY
FUNDRAISING EVENT
COMING SOON

This year the CCD will hold it's major fundraising event, Tricky Tray, on October 20.

In order to make this event a huge success, we are counting on our parishioners to help in any way possible.

The best way will be to donate any baskets and/or prizes that can be offered, such as, gifts or gift cards.

This fundraiser is going to be one of our, if not THE, best fundraisers we will offer this year. So, please remember to participate in any way you are able. If you cannot attend, please offer your help by donating a themed basket or even an empty basket.

Let's make this one the best ever!

LEARN TO LINE DANCE!!

Every Friday night St. Anthony's offers line-dancing lessons and fun for everyone! Get your body moving and keep fit while you enjoy a night out with friends. A donation of $5 will get you in the door! Why not try it—bring your best buds and get a little exercise instead of laying on the couch watching TV by yourself!!
