PRAYER TO ST. ANTHONY FOR HEALING

Dear St. Anthony, you loved God so much when you lived upon the earth.

You were known, even then,
as a great Wonder-worker,
so great did His power live in you.

Now that you are in heaven,
you share in God's glory
and in His power in a more perfect way.

Look on me with kindness
as I come to you in my need.

I pray for healing for myself and for those whom I love. Amen.

Pope Francis' Message

July 3, 2022

Dear brothers and sisters,

In the Gospel of this [last] Sunday's liturgy, we read that "the Lord appointed seventy-two [disciples], and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to come" (Lk 10:1). The disciples were sent two by two, not individually. To go on a mission two by two, from a practical point of view, would seem to bring more disadvantages than advantages. There is the risk that the two do not get along, that they would go at a different pace, that one would get tired or sick along the way, forcing the other to stop. When one is alone, on the other hand, it seems the journey would become swifter and smoother. However, Jesus does not think like this: he does not send people out alone before him, but disciples who go two by two. Let us ask ourselves a question: what is the reason for this choice of the Lord?

It was the task of the disciples to go ahead into the villages to prepare the people to receive Jesus; and the instructions he gives them are not so much about what they should say, but how they should be: that is, not on the "phrasebook" of what they should say, no; on the witness of life, the witness to give rather than the words to say. Indeed, he defines them as workers: they are therefore required to work, to evangelize through their behavior. And the first practical action with which the disciples carry out their mission is precisely that of going two by two. The disciples are not "free riders", preachers who do not know how to yield the word to another. It is primarily the very life of the disciples that announces the Gospel: their knowing how to be together, their mutual respect, their not wanting to prove that they are more capable than the other, their concordant reference to the one Master.

Perfect pastoral plans can be drawn up, and well-designed projects implemented, organized down to the last detail; one can summon crowds and have many means; but if there is no willingness to fraternity, the mission cannot advance. Once, a missionary told of how he left for Africa with a confrere. However, after some time he separated from him, stopping in a village where he successfully implemented a series of building projects for the good of the community. Everything was working well. But one day he had a jolt: he realized that his life was that of a good entrepreneur, always in the midst of building sites and paperwork! But... and that "but" remained there. So, he left the management to others, to the laypeople, and joined his confrere. He thus understood why the Lord had sent the disciples "two by two": the evangelizing mission is not based on personal activism, that is, on "doing", but on the witness of brotherly love, even amid the difficulties that living together entails.

So, we might wonder: how do we take the good news of the Gospel to others? Do we do so with a fraternal spirit and style, or in the manner of the world, with self-promotion, competitiveness and efficiency. Let us ask ourselves whether we have the capacity to collaborate, whether we know how to take decisions together, sincerely respecting those who are alongside us and taking into account their point of view, whether we do so in community, not by ourselves. Indeed, it is above all in this way that the life of the disciple allows that of the Master to shine through, truly announcing it to others.

May the Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, teach us how to prepare the way for the Lord with the witness of fraternity.

A Kernel of History

(Part 37)

Plans to demolish the old church, convent and rectory had been in the making as early as 1988. By 1990, the project had come to a completion and the new era was about to begin. Plans were underway to build a parking lot on the side of the church and then to renovate the front stairs of the church. All of these projects were made financially possible through the generosity of the devoted parishioners and benefactors of St. Anthony's. Some were concerned that there would no longer be a place to hold parish activities. These concerns were alleviated eventually as the lower church and the now vacant school were put to use for these purposes. Based on information found in the archives, the new parking lot was finally completed sometime in 1990 after many years in the planning. As we entered the new decade of the nineties, the Rosarians refurbished the sanctuary by replacing the altar after more than 20 years.. A new custom altar made of walnut-stained oak wood was fabricated by Bernard D'Avella of D & D Millwork in Belleville, a longtime parishioner and volunteer, who donated the materials. New red carpeting along the sanctuary platforms was also installed by the society. By the following year, the Rosary Altar Society would have completed the repainting of all the statues in the church. This was accomplished through their many fundraising efforts. The Holy Name Society was also hard at work as they held their 60th Annual Mothers' Day Communion Breakfast on May 12, 1991. As always, the event was well attended. Over the years keynote speakers included Rev. Michael Fuino, Sr. Anita Sibia MPF and St. Elizabeth Parente MPF.

More to come in future bulletins.

Tree of Life Leaf Memorials

Have you ever noticed our Tree of Life Memorial at the church entrance by the sacristy?

This special memorial tree was created for us by Sanford Werfel Studios and first introduced for our 100th Anniversary. Since then we have had a good amount sold. But, there are still some available leaves.

Based on the original price and procedure, each leaf would cost $1,200 (which could be paid over a period of 12 months). Once payment is completed, we will send the leaf to the original artist to engrave it with your personal inscription.

Purchasing one of these memorial leaves would give your loved one or family a permanent remembrance at our church and, of course, help our parish in this time of need. Please contact the Parish Office for more information.

We have currently sold 6 leaves

Are You a Registered Parishioner?

You may think you are registered—but if you are not receiving envelopes for your weekly donations there is a big chance you are not registered. It is very important that you register at the Parish Office and use your weekly envelopes for giving. The reason for this is because all parishes report the number of parishioners in their Parish yearly and also when a parishioner needs proof that he or she is a Catholic in good-standing it makes the process very simple. You may need this proof if you are asked to be a sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation or when preparing for Marriage. You are encouraged to confirm your registration with our Parish Office by calling Leonora at 973.481.1991 during our office hours 10-4 Monday through Friday.
